Interviews were conducted with [redacted] on 7/5 and 7/7/72. He is reluctant to involve anyone more than [redacted] who loaned him the money for fear of getting in serious trouble with people who might be backing [redacted] money. [redacted] is hedging, but revealing more each interview.

Basically, he stated that both his loans were arranged by [redacted]. The first loan was for $25,000. He received approximately $22,500 of the loan having to pay in excess of $2,000 points and several hundred dollars attorneys fees. A little over six months later, he paid the loan off, the whole $25,000 plus in excess of $2,200 interest. The second loan was for $10,000. He had to put up $1,700 "front" money, cash, then received a check for $9,200, having points and fees subtracted. One month later, he repaid the entire $10,000 plus $104.44 interest. The $1,700 payment was subsequently denied by [redacted] when [redacted] demanded interest refund from [redacted] for early payment. That amount may be substantiated by friends of [redacted] who loaned him the $1700. At least one of them heard the demand for the "front" money.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] refused to refund any of the interest and denied receiving $1700. [redacted] stated he would tell the Internal Revenue Service and [redacted] has refused to see [redacted] since. Subsequent to the payment of the loan [redacted] and his wife have received numerous threats on their lives and property. The last was on 7/2/72 when an unidentified caller stated he had been paid $5000 to kill him and hung up. [redacted] is reluctant to concede that these calls may be connected with his loan transactions.

When questioned in regards to others connected with [redacted] he stated that he feels that [redacted] has other money sources, possibly from Chicago. He has observed two men reputed to be from Chicago dealing with [redacted]. He has seen [redacted] [redacted] together on numerous occasions and they were partners in several business deals. [redacted] claims he does not want to know about [redacted] connections because that knowledge could get him hurt. He says he knows the names of several Chicago area people who have been in contact with him.

PX 179-49
ERE:lmb

[redacted] stated that a few months ago (refused details) after hearing that [redacted] had "strong" Chicago contacts, [redacted] traveled to Chicago to contact some of [redacted] friends to determine the validity of those statements. He would only say he found that [redacted] and [redacted] had strong connections. It should be noted that [redacted] is softening in his steadfastness not to involve "outside" people in this matter.

b6
b7C
b7D

In regards to the collateral used for the loans.

[redacted]

Toll records from February through mid-May, 1972, have been obtained for [redacted] and for the Roman Gate. [redacted] reflected only two out of state calls, both to Chicago. Numerous calls were placed to Chicago and area from the Roman Gate and [redacted] claims they were made by [redacted] and associates as he knows no one in the Chicago area. Further during the investigation, papers were seen in [redacted] car indicating he had traveled to Los Angeles 6/2-3/72 and while at his motel, made numerous long distance calls; the numbers were not listed.

In addition to leads already set out, it is requested of the below offices to determine subscribers, conduct appropriate investigation, indices checks, etc., for possible connections in this case.

Unless otherwise indicated, the calls were made from the Roman Gate Cocktail Lounge and Restaurant, 1008 E. Camelback, Phoenix, telephone 602-264-0271.

SUBJECT: FRANK BUCCIERI;

Re Phoenix airtel to Bureau, 6-30-72.

Numerous interviews with victim [REDACTED] have determined that at no time was he verbally or physically threatened in regard to the payments of loans made by [REDACTED]. Further, he stated that he did not feel that these loans were usurious and eventually produced papers to show that he refinanced the loans with [REDACTED] through a local company called Stewart Title Company and paid [REDACTED] off in full, including a non-usurious interest.

Further, the loans were secured with [REDACTED] home which was wholly owned by him prior to the loans. [REDACTED] is known as a money lender in the Phoenix area by local authorities but is known as one who will loan only when sufficient collateral is available. Local authorities state that although [REDACTED] may collect usurious amounts, it is unlikely that he would use muscle in order to collect the loan moneys. He has been known in the past to simply foreclose on the collateral property. ju

Phoenix is closing their 179 file upon receipt of information gathered from auxiliary offices. It is not anticipated that Phoenix will be communicating with the Bureau in the future on this 179 case but will maintain separate 92 files on the subjects as a means of gathering intelligence data.
